

Bristol Mountain Slide, Ride, & Glide Consignment Policy:

General:

1. Bristol Mountain agrees to offer "For Sale" the equipment for the Customer. Bristol Mountain does not purchase, or take ownership of, or make any warranties, express or implied on any equipment offered "For Sale".
2. All equipment must be in good working order. All skis/boards must have a reasonable tune. Bristol Mountain reserves the right to decline "For Sale" any equipment with excessively rusty edges, base gouges, delamination, or bindings deemed unsafe, unless said issues are addressed and corrected, and equipment is deemed safe and useable by a Bristol Mountain Technician.
3. Bristol Mountain will offer an equipment tune at a discount of 20%, consisting of edge sharpening, and a hot wax, to any customer selling, or buying equipment. Tuning discount is offered only on equipment being purchased or sold on consignment.
4. All ski bindings must meet current industry standards for indemnification.
5. All snowboard/binding combos must have a leash.

Commission:

6. Bristol Mountain will charge, and customer agrees to pay, a thirty percent (30%) commission on the final sale price of any equipment sold if payment by check is the requested, or a ten percent (10%) commission on the final sale price of any equipment sold if payment by Bristol Mountain Gift Card is requested.
7. Bristol Mountain will collect the sale price from the purchaser. The agreed upon commission will be deducted, and a check, or gift card, will be issued to the seller in a timely fashion, not to exceed 13 business days following the sale of the equipment.

Equipment Pricing:

8. Upon dropping equipment off, and filling out paperwork, seller will choose a desired sale price, and a minimum sale price. Tech's will be available to assist and advise seller with pricing if needed.
9. Bristol will offer equipment for sale at the seller's desired price, and accept offers between the seller's minimum price and desired price, without contacting the seller for approval.
10. If equipment has not been sold within a two week period, any offers below the minimum price will be presented to the seller for approval.
11. If seller refuses more than two offers below their minimum price, they will be asked to remove their equipment from the consignment program. If equipment is not picked up within one week, and other arraignments have not been made, the equipment will become the property of Bristol Mountain and donated to OASIS, or a charity of Bristol Mountains choosing.

Use/Trial of Equipment:

12. Seller has the option of whether the equipment may be “tried” by the purchaser prior to purchase.
13. Seller will agree or disagree to pre-purchase trial on paperwork filled out when equipment is dropped off. If seller does not agree, or disagree, pre-purchase trial will NOT be allowed.
14. If seller agrees to pre-purchase trial, buyer will be required to leave appropriate ID and credit card info while equipment is being tried. Appropriate paperwork will be filled out by the purchaser, and a Certified Bristol Technician will set the equipment up to buyer’s specifications.
15. In the event any damage beyond what would be considered normal wear (minor scratches, scuffs) occur, the person trying the ski will be charged accordingly, and the Bristol Mountain Tuning Center will perform the necessary repairs.

Additional Fees:

16. Bristol Mountain reserves the right to charge a prospective buyer a ten dollar fee ($10.00) to adjust bindings if skis are tried prior to purchase.
17. Bristol Mountain reserves the right to charge a prospective buyer a ten dollar fee ($10.00) to adjust bindings once skis have been purchased.
18. Bristol Mountain reserves the right to charge a prospective buyer a fee for any tuning, or mounting work required on any equipment sold.
19. Bristol Mountain will collect and pay any Sales Tax required by New York State. Sales Tax will be charged to the purchaser on the final sale price of the ski.
20. Bristol Mountain will pay any fees associated with accepting credit cards as a form of payment.

Pickup of Equipment at conclusion of Season:

21. All equipment must be picked up no later than two weeks after the close of the Summit Center for the season, unless other arrangements have been made in advance.
22. Any equipment not claimed after the two week period, will become the property of Bristol Mountain, and will be donated to OASIS, or the charity of Bristol Mountains choosing.
